

Thanks God for Drugs

An ironic shortfilm on cocaine and Rio's urbanism. You know -
„She don't lie, she don't lie ... cocaine!" - J. J. Cale 1975

If not ...
We wouldn't have any favela ...
We wouldn't have any cultural production from the favela.

Because it is a 16:9 format I posted a .wmv, now the BIG problem is that iTunes doesn't even show a new post. I looked it up in the internet and they propose to download, install flip4mac. And then still you have to rename the file complicated.

I think the best way for you would be to pass by at my site and view the post <http://www.ar2com.de/radiofavela-blog/bolivia-cocaine/> instead of installing something which is not really worth it.

If you have a better solution please leave a comment on my blog.
